

Dear Fellow Polar Explorers

MIDWINTER SPECIAL

Team Neumayer 2004 is proud and delighted to announce that due to an unexpected increase of our budget it is possible to invite you all to an extended Midwinter cruise. The ship will cast off from the Atka Ice Port. As our cruise liner is equipped with state-of-the-art technology we will reach the Caribbean within a day's journey.

Departure From: Atka Ice Port 70°34'S 08°08'W
When: Sunday, 20 June 2004, 1200 UTC (Boarding 1000 UTC)

Arrival At: the Caribbean
When: Monday, 21 June 2004, 1200 UTC

Return To: Atka Ice Port
When: God knows

Accommodations, food and drinks will be provided and free off any charge. Please bring appropriate clothing for cold and warm weather. Don't forget to show a travel permission signed by your legal guardian on boarding. It is up to your imagination how you organise the journey from your base to Neumayer, we want to stress the fact that we are not able to provide any means of transport. Nevertheless we hope and look forward to meet you all and to have a good time.

Parent Advisory Label: Team Neumayer is not responsible for any long-term consequence or illness resulting from the abuse of alcohol, loud music, wild dancing, uncontrolled exposure to sunlight or anything else that might happen when having a good time.

All who have better plans for Midwinter or are prevented for any reason we wish a good time and a successful season. Take Care.

With best wishes,

Team Neumayer 2004 Anna, Armin, Astrid, Birte, Frank, Gertrud, Karolina, Klaus and Uwe
